

ARCHIVES OFFICE

ARCHDIOCESE OF PERTH

Genealogical Research Application

The Archives Office is supportive of genealogical research and we provide information to individuals from our sacramental registers. Please consider the following before making an application:

- Under the Archdiocese's Sacramental Information Policy, sacramental information is accessible to the public once it is 75 years or older.
- We provide the first hour of research within our collection free of charge. Subsequent research requests can be undertaken at a charge of $50 per hour.
- Please refer to the list of available sacramental registers which can be found at: www.perthcatholic.org.au
